

UPTON SINCLAIR

THE MACHINE

A FULL CAST
LIBRIVOX
RECORDING

THE MACHINE

The Machine

by Upton Sinclair (1878-1968)

Upton Sinclair is best known for his novel The Jungle, an expose of the meatpacking industry. He was also a playwright whose works for the stage reflected the same progressive viewpoints found in his other writing. In The Machine, published as part of Sinclair's 1912 collection Plays of Protest, Socialist activists show a rich man's daughter the truth about the society in which she has been raised.

Cast:

Julia Patterson, a magazine writer: Elizabeth Klett
Jack Bullen, a parlor Socialist: Dale Burgess
Laura Hegan, Hegan's daughter: Arielle Lipshaw
Allan Montague, a lawyer: Bellona Times
Jim Hegan, the traction king: ToddHW
Annie Roberts, a girl of the slums: Lucy Perry
Robert Grimes, the boss: John Steigerwald
Andrews, Hegan's secretary: Max Körlinge
Parker, a clerk: Marty Kris
Narrator: Linette Geisel

Total running time: 1:39:11

cover design by Kathryn Delaney

Upton Sinclair

Upton Sinclair

THE MACHINE

LibriVox

acoustical liberation of books
in the public domain